Rogers Bayfest Nominated for Best Festival in Canada

The organizers of Rogers Bayfest received more great news as their Rock and Country Festival held in July at Centennial Park has been nominated to the Top 4, for Best Festival in Canada by the Canadian Event Industry Awards.

The CEIA is a national award program which recognizes outstanding achievements in special events, meeting management, conference planning and exhibition management.

“We are so ecstatic to be notified that we were in among the Top 4 festivals in Canada. The whole Bayfest team (volunteers and staff) deserve a lot of recognition, we love the festival and will continue for years to come” explains Michele Stokley.

The festivals nominated in the Best Festival category are:

Bayfest Festival of Performing Arts, Sarnia, ON, Rogers Sarnia Bayfest
Pride Toronto, Toronto, ON, 2009 Pride Toronto Festival
City of Surrey, BC, Surrey Fusion Festival
Canada Place Corporation, Vancouver, BC, Canada Day at Canada Place

The winners will be announced “Oscar Style” at the CEIA Gala awards in Toronto on March 26th, 2010.
